Personal Statement

I am a student in Computer Science and I am applying to the Student Opportunity Fund for one purpose: present at a student programming competition. This opportunity connects directly to what I want to do after graduation, and I could not cover the full cost on my own this year.

Over the past year I have taken on more responsibility in my program, including helping newer students and working part time on campus. I have planned the costs carefully and kept them as low as I can, as the budget shows.

If I receive an award, I will share what I learn with my department, and I will submit the short report the fund asks for within a month of finishing.

Reference 1

I am pleased to recommend applicant APP-004 for the Student Opportunity Fund. I have known the applicant for about two years, as their supervisor.

The applicant is reliable, prepares carefully and asks good questions. Their work this year has been among the strongest in the group, and they have been generous with their time in helping others.

The activity described in this application fits their goals well, and I expect they will make good use of it. I recommend them without reservation.
